

Canzonetta

All-in-All's Call

Religion is a map. Spirituality is surrender to All. Maya Angelou

To practice religion you follow rules.
Maps supplied to Heaven's realm.
Symbols and routes for different schools.
You are not to question who's at the helm.
Most religions are inspired by men who dictate authority to praise God or All,
limited power to children and women.
What do we hear in All-in-All's call?

Spirituality devises personal rules
with guidelines perhaps to a cosmic realm, borrows wisdom from many schools
decides whether a creator is at the helm.
Spirituality enlightens freedom for women and men.
Not all seekers surrender to God or All.
Spirituality encourages light in men and women.
What do we hear in All-in-All's call:?

Canzonetta

1. Octaves. 8-line stanzas
2. Must have a least two octaves as last line repeats in next stanza.
3. Rhyme Schemes: a-b-a-b-a-d-c-D or a-b-a-b-a-b-c-b-c-D
4. First line sets up tempo. No set meter or syllabic count.