

Trolann

Thanksgiving Trolann

Thanksgiving is a day to bless those who make our lives thrive,
think of those who have much less.
Try to help others to survive.

How we chose to celebrate
has to be a cooperative choice.
Holidays we can collaborate,
have everyone share their voice.

Only this time we gather to feast
our traditions brought to the table own responsibility for those who have the least outreach the best ways we are able.

Now when time are hard for some niggardly responses are not acceptable.
Neighborly gestures are welcome.
Need brings newcomers to the table.

Trolann: Created by Valerie Petersen Brown

1. Four quatrains. Each quatrain begins with the same letter.
2. The rhyme scheme is a-b-a-b.
3. The first letter of the first stanza is the first letter in next the stanza.
4. The second stanza is the second letter of the first word in the first stanza.
5. The third stanza uses the second letter of the first word of second stanza.
6. The fourth stanza uses the second letter of the first word of the third stanza.
7. First stanza uses t from Thanksgiving.
Second stanza uses h from those.
Third stanza uses o from how.
Fourth stanza uses n from only.