

Cinq-Cinquain

#judgmentday

Camping's
Rapture is late.
Saturday night passed like we have come accustomed to it being.

People
scoffed, laughed, joked, but some people believed. They sold all their wealth for their souls and they wept.

Skeptics
said "We're still here."
But prediction touched nerves.
Many natural disasters
this year.

Earthquakes,
floods, hurricanes,
tsunamis, tornados
volcanic eruptions, mud flows bring fear.

Times are uncertain. Stop to reflect on your life and hash tags. Be glad this was not Doom's Day.
