

Clarity Pyramid

LIGHT
season returning.

Christmas holiday celebrations of light
welcome hope, joy, peace, faith, love.

“Angels bring luminous message.”

DOLLS
plaything,
role model

how to cuddle and love handle gently, create stories, dream fantasies, play

“Animate the inanimate.”

MOON
eclipses—
hood-winks light

Our view darkens, but mood’s only transient.
Light returns promising hope.

“Moon winks at us like new lover.”

UNIVERSE
Big Crunch
or Big Chill?

I will not see which.
Expand forever? Collapse in an instant?
Will you keep doing this eternally or

“Will another kind of change challenge ?”

Clarity Pyramid: two triplets and a single line for 7 lines total.

Center on the page.

The first triplet has 1-2-3 syllables. The title is the one syllable word of the first triplet. It is shown in capital letters. This is followed by a 2-syllable line and a 3-syllable line which clarify the definition of the poem.

The second triplet has 5-6-7 syllables. Its design is around an event contained in the triplet. Helps to give a poetic view of first line.

The last line has 8 syllables. It is in quotations as this line contains a quote that defines the first word title.