

Distorted Diablo

Ode to Volunteers

Give praise to volunteers who feed hungry people
who clothe the worn-out, cold.
who hold a trembling hand
who comfort the dying
who care for very sick.

Volunteers coach all ages of sports
Volunteers for political parties.
Volunteers teach others arts and crafts.
Volunteers staff at homeless shelters.
Volunteers visit in hospitals.
Volunteers collect diseases' funds.
Volunteers start nonprofit causes.
Volunteers sing and play some music
Volunteers protest government acts.

Why do they help others?
They love community.
They want a better world.
They work to make it good.
They give time and their love.
They share and give for free.

Distorted Diablo: Created by Patricia Ann Farnsworth-Simpson. Working with devil's number 6-6-6. Turned middle number around. Made 6-9-6.
Three stanzas. 1st stanza: 6 syllables for 6 lines. 2nd stanza: 9 syllables for 9 lines
3rd: 6 syllables for 6 lines