

Five-Four Quatrain

James plays basketball.
His team's the Titans.
They have more losses
than wins so far-sigh.

They hope to improve.
The coach likes to shout.
His veins pop out, but players can not laugh.

Ball handling is poor.
Too many missed shots.
Air-balls, fouls-needs
better assists too.

James keeps trying to make smooth moves, good shots,
but the team lacks skill
at the right moments.

In the New Year- hope.
They have faithful fans.
Maybe if they get lucky they'll succeed.
