

La'Tuin

Protect Mother Earth

Mother Earth is constantly shifting,
tries for balance and harmony,
changing, purifying and purging,
submerging, dividing, lifting.

The continents are slowly drifting,
shuffling surface, humanity.
Oceans roil and land masses emerging,
What is splendid planet gifting?

Hope our consciousness is uplifting
as we pollute land, sky and sea.
What is result of excess splurging?
What is damaged planet sifting?

Regroup from our destructive rifting.
Restore connection, unity.
Follow each benevolent urging.
It's our future we're short shifting.

Mother Earth is constantly shifting,
tries for balance and harmony,
changing, purifying and purging,
submerging, dividing, lifting.

La'Tuin: Created by Laura Lamarca.
Four stanzas. a-b-c-b rhyme scheme.
First stanza sets the rhyme sounds for the other stanzas.
First stanza repeated at the end of the piece.
Syllable Count per stanza: 9-8-9-8
Minimum of 4 stanzas. No maximum limit.