

Limacros

What a Poem Needs

A poet tries many ways to truth.
Poetic license makes leaps to free.
Overwhelmed by the form
Every poet seeks
Muses' inspiration for each poem.

(two words in one stanza)

Munch Lunch in a Crunch

Many soups do not have enough crunch
Unless some innards have tiny punch
Now croutons just might work
Chew them toasted when through
Healthy sandwich might do the munch trick.

Lettuce, tomato and mayonnaise
Unless you can't have any of latter.
Now time for a salad.
Choice of ingredients.
How do we have time to eat all this?

(two words in two linked stanzas)

Limacros: Created by Patricia A. Farnsworth-Simpson
A two-word/verse acrostic done in limerick style.
Syllable Count: 9-9-6-6-9