9th Annual Earth Day Hoo Haa

Free Food. Free Shuttle Van. Free poetry reading in circus tent

The student-run organic farm near town invites you to bring a turning fork to help till the ground to plant beets, greens, lettuce and 10,000 onions or tour the farm, listen to live music, view some displays, watch a bubble artist, learn about soil and how chickens in mobile coops till earth.
Circus performers and face painting too.
Vegetarian tamale pie-so bring own bowl, silverware—but not your dog.

Ten By Ten: Robert Lee Brewer suggested poets write a ten-line poem with ten syllables per line. The poem can rhyme or not. Any subject.
